

Leisure Time

Allschwil offers a wide range of leisure facilities for a wide audience. Numerous sports facilities are available for the healthy pursuit of your recreational and leisure needs. A great plus that Allschwil has to offer is its attractive and valuable green environment. A well-known and popular area is the forest called "Allschwiler Wald", which attracts many people who are looking for relaxation and recreation.

Traditional public festivals and customs are permanent fixtures in Allschwil's social calendar. Particularly worth mentioning are the Allschwil village carnival at Fasnacht, the Banntag, the Eierläset and the Klausenlauf, which is well known far beyond the borders of Allschwil.

Discover life in Allschwil from 18th to the 20th century!

Lovers of museums will find what they are looking for in Allschwil's museum of local history. For more Information, see <http://www.heimatmuseum-allschwil.ch/>.

A stone throw from Basel, Alsace (France) and Schwarzwald (Germany)!

The choice of attractive leisure activities in the Basel region is simply endless. Whether you are interested in culture or sports, you will appreciate the beautiful countryside or the urban life - the Basel region offers a wide range for every taste. Some attractive suggestions for trips can be found on the following websites:

Basel - Sights and Popular Tours

Basel Sightseeing

<http://www.allschwil.ch/en/living-in-allschwil/leisure-time/index.php>